Eagle Scout Paints New Games for Members at Boys & Girls Club of the Lower Naugatuck Valley

Shelton, CT, October 5, 2012 – This summer, Eagle Scout Angelo Ciambriello of Troop 101 in Shelton completed a service project at the Boys & Girls Club of the Lower Naugatuck Valley. The project helped Angelo achieve the highest rank in scouting, Eagle Scout. Angelo created games on our blacktop for our Club members that are both entertaining and educational. The games included a 20-foot multiuse circle, a shuffle board, four hopscotches, two four-squares, a ball target, a bean bag game, a number grid, an and alphabet grid. Our Club members have been playing with them ever since and are thrilled with the variety of games. Helping Angelo were his mom, his two brothers Michael and Joseph, Zoe Curtin, Chris Curtin, James Rosa, Anthony Rosa, John Walsh, Mark Connolly, Andrew Connolly, Gajaan Sittambalam, Gary Duhaime, Pat Boland, Anthony Kuczinski, Matt Richard, and Kim Youschak.
