About the Race

The Commodore Hull Thanksgiving Day 5k Road Race was started in 2002 by a small committee of volunteers who wanted to create a community event that would recognize one of the greatest naval heroes in U.S. history, Commodore Isaac Hull, and bring attention to the tremendous changes going on in the downtown areas of the two communities of Shelton and Derby.

Commodore Isaac Hull

The race has become a noted and looked-for Valley event every Thanksgiving and sells out quickly. It offers a great, early morning run through the historic downtowns of Shelton and Derby and is finished in plenty of time to get to the annual Shelton-Derby football game, then on to your Thanksgiving Day celebrations.
